DEATH OF CAPT. LINGENFELTER.—The following letter was received by a gentleman of this place, which he permits us to publish:

HEADQUARTERS, BAKER'S BRIGADE,
CAMP ADVANCE, CHAIN BRIDGE, Sept. 22, '61.

Dear Sir: It is with great pain that I announce to you the death of Captain James Lingenfelter, of Company B., my regiment, which sad catastrophe occurred yesterday afternoon. He was killed in advance of the pickets, and between our lines and those of the enemy. At the time of his death, Capt. Lingenfelter was in command of a scouting party, when finding himself surrounded by a body of rebels, and scorning to retreat, he was shot in the head and immediately killed.

During his short military career, he evinced superior capacity, and has left behind him no man of more promise, and indeed the only fault to be found with him, was that his boiling courage scorned the caution, inseparable from a perfect soldier. While I regret that the State of Oregon is called on to deplore the loss of an excellent citizen, I rejoice that she has many more that will offer their best blood in defense of a Constitution and form of government which are the only guarantees of civil and religious liberty.

E. D. BAKER.

Insructions to the Superindent of Indian Affairs.

"You will not in case assume any liability contracted by your predecessor. Should any claim be presented you will send it here, with all the facts surrounding the case."—Instructions, dated June 25, 1861.

"You will take care to pay no claims for services rendered in an agency where a change of Agents has occurred, prior to the date of your own commencement of service; and, should there be any claims for arrearages therefor, you will forward them to this office, specifying the particulars as to how or why they were incurred, and certified to be correct by the late superintendent or one of the late Agents."—Instructions of Sept. 13, 1861.

COLORADO.—The government of this new Territory is now fairly under way. We notice that some secessionists have been arrested there who were making preparations to raise a company to fight Indians! The Legislature of the Territory is in session. The following paragraphs will show that it assumes to take the power of granting divorces:

COUNCIL CHAMBER, Sept. 27.—Mr. Steck presented petition of Gertrude W. Owens, praying for Divorce from William F. Owens, and on leave introduced C. B. No. 10, a bill for "an act to divorce Gertrude W. Owens from her husband William F. Owens."

Read first and second time.

On motion rules were suspended and C. B. No. 16, a bill for "an act to divorce Gertrude W. Owens from her husband William F. Owens" was read 3d time.

Passed—title agreed to.

Ex-President Buchanan has lately been heard from. He writes to the officers of a great Union meeting at Westchester, Pennsylvania: "I confine myself to a solemn and earnest appeal to my countrymen, and especially those without families, to join the many thousands of brave and patriotic volunteers who are already in the field. This is the moment for prompt and energetic action." Poor old man! Better had it been for his fame had he arrested this rebellion when he could have done it.

BRIGADIER GENERALS.—Among the recent appointments, we notice those of Col. Wright, of the 9th Infantry, and Col. I. I. Stevens, of the 68th New York Regiment as Brigadier Generals.

The Southerners expect the naval expedition to strike at Brunswick, Georgia, or Fernandina, Florida.

The Advertiser has not yet announced the escape of Ex-President Breckenridge for the Southern army.

Intelligence from Charleston is to the effect that there are six privateers there, which dare not attempt to run the blockade.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. [illegible] 1861

DEATH OF COL. BAKER

The dispatch received on [illegible] evening announced the death of Col. Baker on [illegible] at [illegible] on the Potomac, on the 21st October. The dispatches do not furnish the details of the disaster, but his column of 1800 men were attacked by a force of [illegible] of the enemy, and he fell while gallantly leading his troops.

We have been assured that Col. Baker anticipated this result, and prepared for it by making his will some days previous to the battle. His letters to Oregon spoke of the event—as very probable—that he might never be permitted to mingle again with his fellow citizens here.

We feel our entire inability at this time to present to our readers the true character of their fallen Senator, and his great personal worth. He felt that in the great conflict now pending for the preservation of this Union and Government, his duty was plainly marked out before him. He hesitated not to walk in that path, and his death proves the [illegible] love he had for his country. He could have honorably refrained from joining the army. He believed it would be treason to the great cause of human liberty to do so.

Col. Baker held the position of Senator for Oregon but for a brief period. In that [illegible] the payment of our war debt was secured, a daily Overland Mail was established, an appropriation to escort our overland emigration was obtained, [illegible] the Central Pacific Railroad bill would have passed but for the present rebellion, and we know he had other measures in view for the welfare of the people of Oregon. High appointments were offered him, but none of these would he accept which might involve the necessity of resigning his seat in the Senate, to fill which was the highest point of his earthly ambition.

Col. Baker's [illegible] wife in California [illegible] had announced to us her design of making her permanent residence in Salem. [illegible] has two daughters and two sons. [illegible] residing in San Francisco, [illegible] in Southern California, and one in [illegible] the army.

His death is a heavy blow to his family and to his friends scattered over this broad land. Col. Baker was a remarkable man in his indomitable energy—in his great accumulations of useful knowledge—in his brilliant eloquence—in his chivalrous [illegible].

"Death loves a shining mark." All that is mortal of Edward D. Baker has perished—but his memory will live."

We understand that Mr. [illegible] Carter has returned from the Blue Mountains. He represents that discoveries of good gold diggings have been made on several streams in the Blue Mountains, and has brought with him specimens of silver ore and gold-bearing quartz. It is said—we have not seen a [illegible]—that he represents mining prospects in the Blue Mountain region as exceedingly favorable.

The Victoria Colonist of the 25th says that $250,000 of gold dust arrived there from British Columbia on the previous evening, principally from Cariboo. A nugget of seven pounds had lately been picked up near Fort Kamloops.

We learn that important discoveries of gold have been made "on the head waters of the Columbia river, on a range with the Cariboo diggings."

The Origin of the War

[illegible] have [illegible] that [illegible] South [illegible] War [illegible] Stripping [illegible] through which [illegible] have disclosed the [illegible]

That dodge will not [illegible] is entirely played out. The [illegible] man knows as well as he knows anything, that the present rebellion was in full [illegible] and organization, so far as the chief conspirators were concerned, long before Mr. Buchanan retired from the Presidential chair. [illegible] he not know that Mr. Yancey was promised at the [illegible] meeting in New York, held at the Cooper Institute during the last Presidential canvass—that should Lincoln be elected President, an army of fifty thousand men would [illegible] New York to assist the South in opposing his inauguration? [illegible] know that similar threats were uttered all over the Northern States by [illegible] of his [illegible] that substantially, they were embodied in printed resolutions and spread with a lavish hand all over the South and the North—he is more ignorant of political events, than we had supposed him to be—or any other man [illegible] possessing his means of information possibly can be.

Further—does he not know that after Mr. Lincoln was inaugurated peacefully, and the rebellious conspirators were apparently [illegible] that the [illegible] with [illegible] had [illegible] the [illegible] and bring [illegible] does he not know that, [illegible] matters to [illegible] Just how [illegible] that you are in earnest [illegible] will show you where they stand"? [illegible] know that this advice was reiterated [illegible] of the north until the South [illegible] at their work and [illegible] by attacking Sumter.

The [illegible] in its [illegible] have been suppressed for their treasonable [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] that [illegible] the former.

CITY.

Application for Habeas Corpus.—McShalon, a prisoner in the Penitentiary, yesterday filed an affidavit in the Clerk's office, setting forth therein that he is unlawfully restrained of his liberties, and asking his Honor, the county Judge to issue a writ of habeas corpus. The circumstances of the case are about these:—McShalon, had been sentenced for imprisonment in the above Institution for a definite length of time (we don't know how long) which now has expired; but the applicant, during his term of sentence absented himself (or escaped and was re-taken) for the term of six months, which the Lessees now claim the petitioner is obliged to make good, by serving six months longer; hence the application. His Honor ordered the writ issued, returnable on Friday next.

Bell Raised.—The city bell, which so long adorned the Levee at the foot of Alder street, and removed from there by the order of the city council, was yesterday successfully raised on top of the new engine house of Willamette No. 1.

In Memoriam.—The flags of the city were at half-mast yesterday, in respect to our late Senator, who has so nobly sacrificed his life on the altar of his country.

Lieut. Emory with a detachment of twelve U. S. soldiers from Gray's harbor, arrived at Fort Vancouver night before last, to join their company.

Exports.—The bark Almatia, Richardson, Master, sailed from Oak Point for San Francisco, on Tuesday the 29th inst., with a cargo consisting of 100,000 staves and 201,204 feet of lumber.

Receipts of Gold Dust.—Tracy & Co. received $25,000, in dust, by the arrival of the Julia last night, from the mines.

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of Pulmonary, Bronchial, and Asthmatic Affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. Public Speakers and Singers will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

Swett's Grape Bitters, or Restorative Wine, prepared under the supervision of Mrs. A. M. Swett, the celebrated Clairvoyant Physician and prepared [illegible] of great medicinal virtues, combined with the [illegible] of the California Grape—a certain remedy for Liver Complaint, Debility, [illegible], Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Impaired Appetite, Impure Breath, &c., and all diseases requiring a powerful Liver Invigorator and Tonic. Warranted the best remedy ever invented for diseases peculiar to females, [illegible] Leucorrhoea or Whites, Weaknesses, &c. Sold by all Druggists, and by DANIEL SWETT, Proprietor, 535 California street, San Francisco. aug25tm

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY [illegible] securely secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional jealousy. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners of this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. The [illegible] example, a shining light among the philosophers of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in corresponding, please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. NewspaperARCHIVE® NewspaperARCHIVE®

RUSSIAN NOTIONS OF AMERICA AND THE AMERICANS.—A St. Petersburg correspondent of the New York Post, says the ignorance of the people there respecting American affairs is often very amusing: "I have had [illegible] a Russian gentleman, who spoke half a dozen languages, inquire if I meant to go home by railway; and at Kostroma, on the Volga, a well-dressed and apparently intelligent lady asked me, with charming frankness, whether our women were brown or red—and if, when I was at home, I was accustomed to wear 'shoes.'"

An American abroad is now-a-days by no means an enviable creature. If his sympathy be enlisted on either side of the present contest, his anxiety must be considerable; but if he be one who has been taught to love and reverence the Union, and to consider it [illegible] as necessary to the existence of his fatherland, his position is still worse. "May we [illegible] was made to run, but he was never made to fight, and never did [illegible]. A [illegible] as now, when [illegible] Europe, he becomes the subject of [illegible] patient sympathy. "It's very [illegible] it was unavoidable, [illegible] and I have expected it all along," said a German to me yesterday. "[illegible] la grande République!" exclaimed, [illegible] triumph, a Russian [illegible] at Moscow. "There's your boasted [illegible] brothers cutting each other's throats," said a third. "Well, it was a fine experiment, but I never thought it would permanently succeed," exclaims a fourth. And so, though a majority of the people I have met in Russia sympathise with the North, still a vast number are disposed to sneer and cavil. The prestige of the United States abroad is fearfully shaken, and the late defeat of Stone Bridge has not tended to restore it. If the Union be again cemented by Northern arms and energy, we will be respected as before, and the American abroad will again be proud of his country; but till the war is over, one way or the other, he will be disposed to shrink into his shell like a turtle, and must try very hard to keep himself from pulling the noses of the impertinent Job's comforters whom he is sure to meet.

The Washington correspondence of the Philadelphia North American says:

A curious item of history was made by the Eighth Regiment of Pennsylvania Reserves this day week, while on picket duty at Great Falls. The rebel pickets came on to the edge of the river and invited ours over to spend a social half hour. The invitation was accepted, and during the remainder of the day over a hundred of our men crossed over, and about forty of the rebels returned the compliment. Some very amusing stories of the proceedings of the day are told.

Among the rebel visitors to our camp were two Captains and several Lieutenants, who, upon leaving in the evening cut off the buttons from their coats and presented them to our men as mementoes of their visit. They ate and drank together, and, as the story goes, "had a good time generally." Nearly all of these rebels were badly off for shoes, and their uniform, which was poor, was made out of "nigger cloth." They stated that they had no heart in this struggle, but they supposed it must be fought out.

One Captain Weaver, of Berkley county, Virginia, was particularly affectionate to one of the captains of the Eighth, but parted with the promise to kill him when they met in battle array. Colonel Hays, upon whose authority I make this somewhat extraordinary statement, was with his regiment at the time, but was not present during the interviews between his men and those of the enemy. As the latter were retiring, however, he was espied at a little distance off by one of the Lieutenants, who accosted him with a "How d'ye do, Colonel, wouldn't you like to be home with your family this blessed Sabbath?" The Colonel had just time to reply, "Not unless you rebels were properly disposed of," before the party were back again across the river. Since then there has been no picket shooting in that vicinity, and the friendly interchange of courtesies has, it is said, had a good effect in the neighboring sections of Virginia. The experiment was, nevertheless, one of very doubtful propriety, and ought not to be repeated.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S
Private Medical & Surgical Institute,
SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY,
Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, late Lecturer on Diseases of the Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

[illegible] Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours—from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M.

[illegible] Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Consultations, by letter or otherwise, FREE.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

[illegible] of all diseases the first great cause
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

[illegible] when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines are pleasant, without odor, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During [illegible] of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and complete cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. As a permanent cure is scarcely ever effected, a majority of the cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State of Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Skill.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the [illegible] from the jaws of disease, who, having recovered their health, and impelled by gratitude, fully [illegible] their cases and remedial agent, and their statements authenticated by a Notary Public. The doctor [illegible] imperiously demand their publicity, and [illegible] their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

CERTIFICATE.—The undersigned, desirous of [illegible] those who may be unfortunate enough to be [illegible] affected, where a permanent relief of their sufferings [illegible] obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the [illegible] recovery of his health. Borne down by the [illegible] symptoms incident to the vicious practice of [illegible] passion in youth; depressed in body and mind [illegible] to perform even the most trifling duty [illegible] ordinary avocations of life. I sought the advice of [illegible] physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of [illegible] importance. But, alas! after a few weeks, and in some instances months, of their treatment, I found, to my [illegible] and horror, that instead of relief, my symptoms [illegible] more alarming in their torture; and being told [illegible] my disease being principally confined to the [illegible] would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever [illegible] my health, strength, and energy; and as a last [illegible] with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who [illegible] examining my case, prescribed some medicines [illegible] instantly relieved me of the dull pain and [illegible] head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to [illegible] immediately under his care, and by a strict [illegible] his directions and advice, my head became [illegible] ideas collected, the constant pain in my back [illegible] weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the [illegible] and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of [illegible] the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable [illegible] night, followed by involuntary discharges, have disappeared; and in fact, in two months after having consulted the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life, [illegible] but a short time ago I contemplated [illegible] hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate [illegible] into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem [illegible] offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience [illegible] under his care a radical and permanent cure will be [illegible]

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have [illegible] last of your medicine, and do not think I [illegible] more, as I feel very well, except that I have [illegible] got my strength yet, but soon will with [illegible]. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I [illegible] your institute, with my constitution, as I [illegible] entirely, and never thought you would be [illegible] perfectly, but thought you might be able to [illegible] to ease the pain in my back and head, and [illegible] nerves, so that I would not get excited and [illegible] rything. Now that you know what I [illegible] judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery [illegible] symptoms, and the removal of those [illegible] my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the [illegible] page of those emissions, which you said were [illegible] cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you [illegible] greatest, my joy or my surprise, for [illegible] got my strength, I feel as well as any man [illegible].

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over [illegible] think myself cheaply cured. If you think [illegible] benefitted, you may put this letter in the [illegible] lieve me gratefully yours,
THOMAS [illegible]

Thankfulness is the incentive [illegible]

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire [illegible] I wish to lay before the public a case which [illegible] mendation, not only as an act of scientific skill [illegible] humanity also. About two years ago, I [illegible] causes unknown to me, was seized with a [illegible] which, owing to my inability to meet the [illegible] quent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the [illegible] agement which I met with on attempting [illegible] such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill [illegible] physician. I was frequently, while in [illegible] thrown down to the ground without the slightest [illegible] and although insensible to the agonies, I yet [illegible] miseries of my life, and soon learned to look [illegible] would render assistance or shelter me from [illegible] ones who sought to prolong the existence of my [illegible]. While in this state, and having, previous to my [illegible] tasted the sweets of life, I once more [illegible] seeking aid of a physician, and, by [illegible] upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my [illegible] and of my inability to reward him for his services, [illegible] of which however, he at once undertook my case [illegible] the blessing of God, I was once more [illegible] health. Unable to reward him for the boon [illegible] present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness [illegible] him, to myself and all afflicted, to make the case [illegible] order that those in need of medical advice may [illegible] one in whom every confidence can be placed.
